

Genji Noguchi

genji.noguchi@gmail.com | www.genjinoguchi.com | 1 (917) 435-0162
76-70 172nd Street Fresh Meadows, NY 11366

EDUCATION

Stuyvesant High School, Class of 2015
Overall GPA: 96.0

Manhattan, NY

CAREER OBJECTIVES

High school senior seeking a career in computer science, and the skills to start a tech startup.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Entrepreneur-In-Residence

Learning Curve USA

Manhattan, NY

Jul '14 - Present

- Gained experience with Evidence Based Entrepreneurship method of startup building
- Founded KnoKno, a venture centered around informal learning opportunities

Electrical Engineering Intern

ARISE, NYU Polytechnic Institute

Brooklyn, NY

Jul '13 - Aug '13

- Mentored by Professor Vikram Kapila and NYU Poly graduate student Jared Frank.
- Wrote "Hyperaccuracy: An Implementation with PID Loops on a Robotic Arm"

Teacher's Assistant

CSTUY Hacking Sessions

Manhattan, NY

Oct '14 -

- Mentored small groups of high school students entering CS and the techspace.
- Worked with small groups of other TA's for a large project.

ACTIVITIES AND VOLUNTEER WORK

Project Team Leader

Stuyvesant Science Olympiad, Technology Department

Manhattan, NY

Oct '11 -

- Coordination, research, scheduling, and building team projects
- Participated in NYC and NY State competitions (1st Place at Regional Competition, 8th Place in States Competition at Kellenberg Memorial HS)

Hackathon Hacker

HS Hackers, HH Hackers

Queens, NY

Jan '14 -

- Competed at PennApps '15, Hack the North '14, Boston BattleHacks, HackCooper, HackNYU, CodeDay NY, Breaking Barriers Hackathon

SPECIAL SKILLS

Java, C, C++, Javascript, HTML/CSS, Android, Python, Octave, Scheme, Ruby, Microsoft Office Suite
Mandarin Chinese (fluent), French (proficient)

SPECIAL INTERESTS

Consumer electronics, mobile technologies, playing the flute, orchestral music, chamber music, tennis, table tennis, Frisbee, billiards